

The Discoverer Administrator will be able to provide the login details and the URL address for the Discoverer Interface, it is likely that a shortcut will be installed in the Favourites area of your Web browser.

Clicking on the link or entering the correct URL will display the connection interface shown on the following slide ...

This page allows the User to either use a Connection previously entered or to complete the logon details in the provided interface.